

GLOBAL
SCHOOLS

The project

The Autonomous Province of Trento (PAT) leads the European project Global Schools to embed Global citizenship education as a cross-cutting theme in primary school programmes.

The long term aim

A cultural change in schools and in the society at large, aimed at raising a new generation of world citizens motivated by values of solidarity, equality, justice, inclusion and cooperation.

Who and what is involved

10 COUNTRIES 17 PARTNERS 6 ASSOCIATES
9 LANGUAGES 150 POLICY-MAKERS
1000 SCHOOLS 150 PRINCIPALS 2000 TEACHERS
TENS OF CSOs PRACTITIONERS

The project is supported by

Activities include

- Training of teachers, policy makers, civil servants, and CSOs
- Exchanges among teachers Europe-wide
- Comparative research on educational policies and practices in 10 countries
- Production of innovative teaching materials
- Organisation of seminars and round tables
- Drafting of policy recommendations
- Exchange of best practices
- Promotion of school-based events

Partners and associates

Austria: Land Tyrol, Südwind Agentur

Bulgaria: Serdika District, Expert Support Association

Ireland: St. Patrick's College of Education, Trócaire

Italy: Autonomous Province of Trento, Trainig Centre for International Cooperation, Marche Region, Comunità Volontari per il Mondo

Latvia: Municipality of Rezekne

Portugal: Instituto Politécnico de Viana do Castelo

United Kingdom: Cumbria Development Education Centre

Spain: Diputacion Provincial de Zaragoza

Czech Republic: People in Need